about the parc

The Camping Le Coiroux is set in the heart of a forest of chestnuts, oaks, birches and pine trees on the edge of the Dordogne region. A firm favourite with those who appreciate a setting where nature is allowed to breathe, Le Coiroux is part of a 440 acre leisure park. The lakeside beach, just 300m from the spacious pitches is ideal for a cooling dip on a hot day. Whilst the hilltop location keeps Le Coiroux refreshingly cool during the evenings in high summer. Here, above the folds and valleys of the Dordogne River, you're free to enjoy the great outdoors, have a splash about in the good sized pool, enjoy a meal in the restaurant or simply stretch out and relax. Evenings are laid-back and leisurely, with a cosy bar offering the chance to share a drink with the friendly staff and your neighbours. At Le Coiroux, there's no rush - sure, there's the chance to go canoeing down the Dordogne River or take a 4x4 lesson off road, or even take a round of golf but, well, there's always tomorrow...

local area

Not only is Le Coiroux a great starting place for numerous walks and bike trips, it is also the gateway to a whole host of scenic and cultural tourist attractions in the area. For the more adventurous there are plenty of opportunities to go canoeing, climbing or horse-riding. Just down the road is the lovely village of Aubazine, with its Cistercian Abbey and selection of fine restaurants or why not visit the excellent market at Sainte Fortunade and enjoy a barbeque back on your terrace? Good local produce abounds - with patés, duck, trout, apricots and walnuts all features of the region's hearty meals. Throw away your guidebook and simply explore the enchanting countryside at random - you'll have much more fun discovering its ancient villages, châteaux, vineyards and valleys this way.
